The poster features a central illustration of a coastal fortification with a stone wall and a domed sentry box. Two flags, the American and Puerto Rican flags, fly on poles. Below the wall, four icons represent different types of disasters: a flame for fire, a house with water waves for flooding, a circular arrow for hurricanes, and a funnel for tornadoes. The text is arranged in a clean, modern layout with a dark blue background.

The Texas Lyceum's June 2026 Conference in Puerto Rico will convene disaster response and recovery experts from across the public and private sectors to examine the most pressing challenges—and promising solutions—facing disaster response and recovery efforts.

Bringing together experts in emergency medicine, communications, infrastructure, transportation, and policy, this conference will explore how public, private, and nonprofit sectors can better coordinate before, during, and after disasters. These discussions will bring together Texas Lyceum members and Puerto Rican stakeholders to share insights and strengthen cross-regional preparedness and resilience strategies, with a focus on Texas-specific challenges and best practices.

Session topics will include:

- Resilience and Infrastructure
- Cross-Sector Coordination & Public-Private Partnerships
- Healthcare System Surge Capacity & Continuity
- Emergency Communications & Community Preparedness
- Long-Term Recovery & Economic Resilience

From hurricanes and winter storms to wildfires and floods, Texas faces growing disaster risks. Join us for candid conversations, real-world lessons, and actionable insights that will help Texas respond faster, recover stronger, and lead more effectively when disaster strikes.

The Texas Lyceum is the premier non-profit, non-partisan, statewide leadership organization focused on identifying the next generation of top Texas leaders.

We have 96 active Directors from around the state, and our alumni go on to serve our communities, state, and nation in significant ways. Texas Lyceum alumni have served as President of the United States, White House Staff, U.S. Senators & House Members, Ambassadors, Governors, the Texas Legislature, and leading corporations.

Throughout our 42-year history, we have explored topics ranging from education to energy, and criminal justice to banking. Our goal is to inform, engage, and spark debate among Texans about the important issues facing our state.

Sponsorships

Sponsorship will position your organization at the center of one of Texas’s most critical leadership conversations—how we prepare for, respond to, and recover from disasters that affect lives, economies, and long-term community stability.

This conference brings together influential Texas leaders across business, government, healthcare, energy, transportation, technology, and the nonprofit sector—individuals with the ability to shape policy, investment, and operational decisions statewide.
